In coordination with Health Canada, 3M Canada is voluntarily recalling this product from the consumer market after concluding that the recalled product poses a potential safety hazard. The device includes a safety feature that may not operate correctly to turn off power if the product enters an overheating state due to a thermal malfunction, posing a potential fire hazard. Your prompt action is required as detailed below.

Customers with inventory are asked to immediately stop selling this product and contact 3M Canada by emailing QualityCentral@mmm.com to report the quantity of product in your inventory, with purchase order information (if available). Upon receipt of your email, 3M Canada Quality Central will provide a Return Authorization Number and instructions for product return. Once the product is received at the 3M Canada warehouse, customers will receive credit. Please do not deduct the value of the return from current or future payments.

The attached Consumer Recall Notice provides instructions for consumers to immediately stop using the recalled product, unplug the device, and register online to receive a voucher for the value of the product. The recall registration form (https://www.scotchbrand.com/3M/en_CA/scotch-brand-ca/) will ask for consumers to UNPLUG and cut the cord of their recalled laminator. The form will also ask consumers to upload an image of the serial number on the bottom of the product and the cut cord in the same image. Once 3M verifies that the consumer has an impacted unit that has been rendered inoperable, 3M will issue a voucher to the consumer for the value of the product.

If consumers cannot take a picture of the recalled product, they can contact 3M Customer Service at 1 800 772 4337 between 8:00 am – 4:30 pm CT Monday through Friday for more information on how to participate in the recall.

We apologize for the inconvenience this situation has caused and thank you for your prompt support of this important Recall Notice. If you have any questions, please contact your 3M Canada Sales Representative.

Sincerely,
